Should Not Be Revoked)

ORDER

Issued: April 29, 2004

Released: April 30, 2004

At the close of hearings, the parties were advised on-the-record that submissions of proposed findings and conclusions of law would be postponed a reasonable period of time to permit efforts by Family Broadcasting, Inc. to effect assignment of its licenses to a third party. See Order FCC 04M-10, released March 18, 2004. The postponement is soon to end.

On April 29, 2004, a status report via conference call was received in which the parties presented convincing reasons for a further postponement in order to permit the Commission to conclude deliberations and issue its ruling to approve or disapprove the pending license assignment for the subject stations.

For good cause shown, IT IS ORDERED that these proceedings ARE FURTHER STAYED until June 30, 2004.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that if the Commission has not acted, Family Broadcasting, Inc. SHALL FILE a Status Report on June 30, 2004.¹

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION²

Richard L. Sippel
Chief Administrative Law Judge

¹ The Status Report shall include proposed dates for the filing of proposed findings and reply findings if the case cannot be terminated by assignment.
